EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Richard V. Burgujian on 18 January 2008.

Please cancel claim 10.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art disclosed in the PTO 892 and references searched by the examiner disclose or teach a separating unit, intensity map, or a compressed texture generating unit. However, the prior art or the references do not disclose or teach features such as rearranging a plurality of texture images corresponding to a plurality of different light source directions and a plurality of different view point directions into a plurality of rearranged texture images by grouping pixels included in the plurality of texture images per view point direction and coordinate on each of the texture images, a compressed texture input device inputting a compressed texture into which a plurality of texture images corresponding to a plurality of different light source directions and a plurality of different viewpoint directions have been compressed and which includes compressed intensity maps, light source-independent texture compressed images, intensity map correction compressed images, representative intensity maps, color component conversion tables and correction image conversion tables, and compressed texture blocks, each including an identifier representing a viewpoint direction, first compressed data obtained by compressing the normalized parameters, second compressed data obtained by compressing the normalized intensity components, and third compressed data obtained by compressing the color components, each of the first, the second and the third compressed data corresponding to the viewpoint direction that the identifier represents.

3. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
